This is an image of a San Francisco Zoning Map showing height and bulk districts. The map includes various streets and areas marked with different symbols and colors to indicate various zoning categories. The map also includes a key at the bottom explaining the symbols and color codes used to represent different zoning districts.

The map indicates that the zoning districts are established by sections 250 and following of the Planning Code. The map is used to identify and display the height and bulk limits for different areas within the city.

The map includes a disclaimer that the information is provided "as is" without warranties of merchantability or fitness for a particular purpose and assumes no responsibility for any loss or use of the information.

San Francisco Zoning Map

HEIGHT AND BULK DISTRICTS

"Open Space" District

"Numbers" are Height Limits in feet. See Planning Code Section 250 and following.

"Letters" refer to Bulk Limits. See Planning Code Section 270.

"Suffix Numbers" identify districts in which special regulations apply. See Planning Code Sections 283 and following.

Disclaimer: The City and County of San Francisco does not guarantee the accuracy, adequacy, comprehensiveness or usefulness of any information. CCSF provides this information on an "as is" basis without warranties of merchantability or fitness for a particular purpose, and assumes no responsibility for anyone's use of the information.

© 2020 City and County of San Francisco.

The Zoning Map of the City and County of San Francisco is established by sections 250 and 256 of the Planning Code. A part of the San Francisco Municipal Code. Zoning Use Districts are established by sections 251, 252, 253, and 254 of the Planning Code. This map represents the Board of Supervisors' ordinances enacted through April 2020.

The Zoning Map of the City and County of San Francisco is not to scale. It is intended for general information purposes only and is not suitable for precise location determination.